

Secondary Transition: Parent Education Series

This four part parent education series is designed to enhance the knowledge and resources available to parents and transition age youth 14-21 and beyond. Presented by Ms. Lisa Kellick and Dr. Erin J. Grimm, whose professional tenure encompasses special education initiatives, administration, and supervision, seeks to strengthen the awareness of secondary transition and effective planning for the successful post-secondary endeavors of transition age youth.

Please join us throughout 2016-2017 to network, gather resources, and enhance community partnerships!
